North Vietnamese leaders expressed the great importance of moral and political support from the Soviet Union as well as from other socialist countries and "democratic forces" in capitalist countries for the successful end of the fight by the Vietnamese people for freedom, independence and the country's unification. The Soviets promised the North Vietnamese Government that the Soviet Union is ready to give additional assistance in strengthening the defensive capacity of the North Vietnamese Army.

North Vietnamese leaders noted that after the political upheaval in the Soviet Union during October, 1964, many things have happened in the Soviets' approach to internal and external political problems which have brought the North Vietnamese and Soviet Governments together. The North Vietnamese leadership indicated that the "measures" taken by the Soviet Union in connection with the American air raids on North Vietnam populated areas were met by the North Vietnamese CP and people with great satisfaction.

DISCUSSIONS IN NORTH KOREA:

The invitation to visit Pyongyang, North Korea, came from Korean comrades during the period the Soviet delegation was in Hanoi. The discussion with North Korean leaders was devoted to the problems of the development of Soviet-Korean relations and the strengthening of the unity of the world communist movement. The Soviets expressed their willingness to expand economic cooperation with the North Korean Government in order to fortify the defense of North Korea, and North Korean leadership agreed to accept this offer.

The North Korean leaders expressed their positive attitude to the recent change in leadership within the Soviet Union and listened attentively to the Soviets' explanations regarding the need to convene the 3/1/65 preparatory committee meeting in Moscow to prepare for a world meeting of all fraternal parties. However, the North Korean leaders pointed out that it would be difficult to induce the North Vietnamese comrades to participate in the preparatory meeting if the Chinese comrades do not attend. Nevertheless, the North Korean leaders promised not to write anything critical in regard to the preparatory meeting.

SOVIETS' EVALUATION OF DISCUSSIONS:

The CCCPSU considers that the discussions with the North Vietnamese and North Korean leaders were useful as they helped to give a better understanding of the problems of the world communist movement. The discussions proved that in spite of certain ideological differences there are good possibilities for increasing cooperation with the North Vietnamese and North Korean Governments at the state levels and also for gradual improvement of relations at the communist party level.

ACTION:

For the Director's information. The 3/3/65 Soviet radio message pertaining to discussions in Peking, China, will be promptly brought to your attention.

On 3/2/65 a handprinted note from CG 5824-S* was received by the Chicago Office through a Solo drop box maintained in the name of NORMA HANSEL, Post Office Box 7363, Chicago, Illinois 60680. This note was dated 2/23/65 but was postmarked at Prague, Czechoslovakia on 2/27/65. The contents of this note were telephonically furnished to the New York Office on 3/2/65 for transmittal to NY 694-S*. Set forth below is the text of this handprinted note with certain parenthetical inserts interpreting some of the double meaning code words used therein:

"Dear Norma:

"Hope this finds you in good health and working. I am feeling fine and having somewhat of a vacation. By the way, did the New York Times carry the four page ad of Scheckoslovakia which appeared in the international edition of 2/20? This ad is a bid for trade and tourism. I imagine a tourist can do as well here as any where else in Europe.

"I've learned that Mr. Topper intends to devote the entire issue of June to the U.S.A. Since Mr. Broadman is interested in the dance (the magazine), he can certainly help to make this one a success. If I run across, as I undoubtedly will, some of his people (some CP, USA members), such as Dandy and others (JIM JACKSON and the other delegates to the 3/1 meeting), I will inform them about this and solicit their cooperation. Separately, I will verify the topics for this special issue which is devoted entirely to the U.S.A. I am sure that Mr. Broadman will want to write on his very favorite topic, the role of the U.S. as he has conceived of it for the book which he has in mind. (HALL intends to author a book on the subject of "The Role of U.S. Imperialism in the Present World Epoch.") The fact of the matter is, that most people do not know the U.S.A. and the great and important changes that have taken place there during the last decade. This occasion will make it possible to show the true role of the firm (CP, USA) and Mr. Broadman (HALL) - its ability to make changes in this turbulent world of automation. The material and scripts (contributions to this issue of the magazine) will have to be ready in the early part of May.

"Well dear Norma we will try to keep in touch with you if the tour permits. As you know it is difficult to combine business and pleasure. With warmest regards - Joseph"

The attention of New York is directed to Chicago's letter to New York (Interoffice) dated 2/25/65 captioned "NY 694-S*" referring to the matter of reimbursement to the CP, USA by the "World Marxist Review." In this letter CG 5824-S* suggested that if NY 694-S* did not hear from CG 5824-S* on this matter in a few weeks then he should perhaps drop a note concerning this matter to the proper people. As can be seen by the contents of the above note there will be no necessity for NY 694-S* to take any further action in that regard.

The text of the above note should be furnished to NY 694-S* so that the information therein may be transmitted to GUS HALL. The reference in the note to verifying the topics for this special issue separately apparently indicates an additional message from CG 5824-S* will be forthcoming with this information, which message will probably be transmitted via the Solo apparatus channels.

The Bureau has received information from the Central Intelligence Agency that Aleksey Bulyakov, Deputy Chief, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, during a recent trip to Finland made the following points during a discussion with Finnish communist leaders.

(1) Class warfare is dangerous and undesirable.

(2) Soviets favor freer competitive markets.

(3) Force and violence concept is still valid in underdeveloped countries.

(4) It is stupid for communists to tear down institutions and traditions already developed in Finland. Finland should not return to a one-party system.

(5) Socialism will be a long time coming to Western Europe, but it will come. However, communists will not be the sole leaders.

(6) Each communist party must decide on its own how socialism will be built in its own country.

(7) Communist parties must cooperate with the social democrats.

(8) The majority of the working class in Western Europe is following the social democrats.

(9) One of the communists' greatest errors was condemning the progressive elements and trying only to create conditions for communist revolution.

INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

The following information is being submitted for the possible use of the Director in his meeting with the President.

My memorandum of 3-2-65, set forth a summary of the text of two coded radio messages sent by the Soviets to the Communist Party, USA, via our clandestine Solo communication apparatus. These messages pertained to a visit by a Soviet delegation headed by Soviet Premier Aleksei Kosygin to North Vietnam and North Korea.

The third radio message from the Soviets was received today and pertained to the visit to Peking, China. The pertinent information in this message is as follows:

Kosygin and MAO Tse-tung, Chairman of the Communist Party of China, agreed that China and the Soviet Union must exchange information on problems of support to Vietnam. MAO said the American air raids on North Vietnam are "American foolishness." He said the raids caused only a small amount of death. He felt there was nothing terrible concerning the fact that some people were being killed. The Soviets did not share this view. The Chinese confirmed their conviction that world war is unavoidable.

MAO said atom bombs would not be used in Vietnam. He added it was necessary to rely on conventional weapons. MAO thought the policy of peaceful coexistence with efforts to preserve peace and the struggle for general and complete disarmament was a policy profitable only to imperialists.

ACTION:

For the Director's information. An additional radio message pertaining to this matter will be transmitted by the Soviets on 3-4-65, and a summary of this message will be promptly brought to your attention. When we have received the complete transmission consideration will be given to disseminating this information to the White House, Secretary of State, Attorney General, and the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Re Bureau letter dated December 14, 1964, concerning investment by CG 5824-S* of $20,000 of reserve funds of the Communist Party (CP), USA in stock of the First National Bank of Lincolnwood, Illinois.

The Bureau requested Chicago to advise whether the stock certificate is in the name of CG 5824-S* or CG 6653-S. For the information of the Bureau, this stock certificate is in the name of CG 5824-S*. As a result, any dividend disbursements and/or profits upon the sale of this stock will require such sums be reported by CG 5824-S* on his Federal Income Tax Return and the payment of the appropriate tax.

As the Bureau is aware GUS HALL has continued to exert unrelenting pressure upon CG 5824-S* to expand investments of CP reserve funds in such a manner as to achieve substantial financial return to the CP, USA. CG 5824-S* has attempted to parry HALL's directions in this regard to the best of his ability based upon several considerations. First of all CG 5824-S* is fully aware of and in full agreement with the Bureau's desire that the CP not receive any substantial returns on investments of its funds. Secondly CG 5824-S* is still faced with the necessity of locating trusted Party persons who will accept the responsibility of having such investments made in their names, together with the corollary responsibility of reporting the profits from such investments on their Federal Income Tax Returns.

Frustrating HALL's desires in this regard presents a formidable obstacle to CG 5824-S* and poses a possible threat to the continued control of the CP reserve funds by the informant and the Bureau. Should HALL become dissatisfied with CG 5824-S*'s procrastination and/or failure to comply with HALL's directions in this regard, it is well within the realm of possibility and

As the Bureau is also aware, the Chicago Office together with the New York Office and the Bureau had been giving consideration to making an approach through NY 694-S* to [redacted] (the so called [redacted] for whatever assistance he might be able to render in suggesting investment possibilities. It was at that point that GUS HALL issued instructions to NY 694-S* to make just such an approach to [redacted] relative to the investment of the $70,000 profit derived by the Party from the sale of the building at 35 East 12th Street, in New York City. In light of this, the Chicago and New York Offices and the Bureau deemed it b7D inadvisable to pursue the matter of consulting [redacted] relative to the investment of other reserve funds. HALL has apparently pre-empted this avenue and furthermore may soon place NY 694-S* in the same dilemma as CG 5824-S* by demanding that NY 694-S* locate persons to accept the responsibility for investing Party funds. Therefore, we were all in agreement that the Chicago informant's problem should not be interjected into the New York informant's discussions with [redacted]

We should however keep this in mind - FJH

From the information available to us at this time, we conclude that HALL has four channels through which he is attempting to invest the Party's funds: 1. CG 5824-S*; 2. NY 694-S*; 3. MAX WEINSTEIN; and 4. His own independent contacts, such as the unidentified California couple whom he has indicated he may use for investments suggested by [redacted] There is every indication that HALL will not be satisfied with anything less than total compliance with his instructions in this regard and has shown no indication of yielding to b7D CG 5824-S*'s arguments and explanations of the difficulties he is encountering in his attempts to satisfy HALL's demands. HALL is not noted for a reasonable attitude and by his own statements characterizes this investment problem as his foremost unsolved problem; therefore, we can only anticipate that HALL's unreasonable demands will continue.

this is not the case now - it's good business now's part for

In view of HALL's adamant position in this matter, we can postulate no other position but for CG 5824-S* to grudgingly comply with HALL's demands to at least a limited extent. From the standpoint of the long range continuation of the Solo operation and the maintenance of control of CP funds, we can come to no other conclusion but that CG 5824-S* will have perhaps even probable that HALL would remove the reserve funds from CG 5824-S*'s control and either assume some measure of this task himself or delegate someone else to accomplish his purpose. Of course we wish to prevent this course of action also.

In addition to the investment of $20,000 in stock of the First National Bank of Lincolnwood, Illinois, referred to above, CG 5824-S* has made an additional investment of $11,500 from CP, USA reserve funds for which Bureau authorization was obtained telephonically on February 9, 1965. This investment was made through a nephew of CG 6653-S in S & K Jewelry, Incorporated, which is a jewelry concession in a discount business located on South Halsted Street, Chicago, Illinois. Stock will be issued in CG 5824-S*'s name. Now having $31,500 of Party funds invested, CG 5824-S* believes that he may be able to stall HALL off for a short period of time. However, while in New York City shortly before departing on the 18th Solo Mission, CG 5824-S* was once again importuned by HALL to discard his "timidity" and invest a greater quantity of Party funds. Apparently, even this additional investment has been insufficient to satiate HALL's demands and this problem remains as pressing as ever.

The Chicago Office has given and continues to give this matter intensive consideration. In an effort to skirt the issue of locating persons to bear the tax liability on such investments, Chicago suggested to CG 5824-S* the possibility of investing a portion of these funds in tax exempt municipal bonds. While not totally eliminating this avenue of investment, CG 5824-S* noted that he is sure that GUS HALL will not view this solution too enthusiastically because of the low rate of return from such investments. Nonetheless, in the absence of superior alternatives, CG 5824-S* agrees that this may ultimately be the best course to follow but at this time he wishes to reserve judgment pending his return and the possibility of some other solution being devised in the interim. We might note that the low rate of return mentioned above, while not totally satisfying HALL, does incline toward the objective of the Bureau in limiting the financial gains of the Party.

to make some investments of CP funds in accordance with HALL's demands. Chicago is continuing to give this matter preferred attention in an effort to devise a method whereby HALL can be satisfied while at the same time the Party's financial gains can be minimized. We are also giving careful consideration to identifying individuals whom CG 5824-S* may be able to utilize for the placement of investments of CP funds. The Bureau will be promptly advised at such time as a workable plan is devised and of course no action will be taken to implement such a plan without prior Bureau authority.

This must be done without further delay.

SINO-SOVIET RELATIONS

The Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, recently furnished to the Communist Party, USA, the following information relating to the discussions that took place in Peking, China, between representatives of a Soviet delegation, headed by Soviet Premier Aleksei Kosygin, and representatives of a Chinese delegation, headed by MAO Tse-tung, Chairman, Communist Party of China.

The Chinese leaders expressed themselves as being opposed to multilateral consultations of fraternal parties and opposed to the convening of a world conference of all fraternal parties. However, MAO noted that such a conference may be possible in eight or ten years. MAO indicated that solidarity between China and the Soviet Union will be re-established when the "imperialists unleash a new world war." MAO stated that "war will reunite us and we will be together again."

The Soviet leaders made several proposals for the development of Sino-Soviet relations at the state level. Although the Chinese avoided a detailed discussion of this question, they agreed to expand trade with the Soviet Union, and to exchange tourist and student delegations. The Chinese leaders indicated that the time "is not ripe," to hold a bilateral summit meeting between Sino-Soviet leaders in order to discuss in detail all questions relating to Sino-Soviet relations.

The Soviets, in evaluating their discussion with the Chinese leadership, were of the opinion that the Chinese leaders displayed some interest in developing state relations with the Soviet Union. The Soviets indicated that they will continue to seek ways to normalize relations with the Chinese, but at the same time will firmly defend the "common line" of the world communist movement which is based on "immovable Marxist-Leninist principles."

SUBJECT: SOLO
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

On 3/9/65 the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, sent a communique to the National Committee of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), via our clandestine Solo communication apparatus. This communique pertained to the consultative meeting held in Moscow, Russia, from 3/1/65 to 3/6/65, which was attended by representatives from 19 communist parties, including the CPUSA. The communique noted that the participants at the conference had exchanged views on ways to strengthen the unity of the international communist movement and had appealed for an end to public polemics. In addition, the communique noted that all participants had agreed to work toward a new world communist conference of 81 fraternal parties and indicated that such a conference at a suitable time would answer the interests of the international communist movement.

OBSERVATIONS:

The consultative meeting was originally called for the purpose of formulating an agenda and preparing for an international meeting of all communist parties in an attempt to bring about unity in the world communist movement. Although the Soviets invited 26 fraternal parties to this meeting, only 19 parties were represented. The Chinese, and fraternal parties sympathetic to the Chinese, boycotted the meeting. As a result the meeting was downgraded from an editorial commission meeting to a mere consultative meeting.

The Italian CP has released the text of the Soviets' communique to the press and an article pertaining to this matter appeared on the front page of "The Washington Post" today. The article indicated that the Soviets had sent their communique to about 90 fraternal parties prior to having it published on 3/10/65.

ACTION:

For information. No dissemination is being made in view of the fact that the Soviets' communique has already appeared in the press.
